

SULLYMAC FACTS

Customer Focus

- Respond 24/7 to customer needs
- Provide strong support base in engineering, documentation, project management and field expertise
- Fulfill contractual requirements while maintaining highest levels of quality and workmanship
- Focus on providing customer satisfaction from design through completion

Ownership

- Sullivan & McLaughlin Companies is led by Hugh McLaughlin, John McLaughlin and W. John Rudicus who have built Team SullyMac into one of New England's most experienced and diversified electrical contracting firms.

Safety Rating

- Sullivan & McLaughlin maintains a modification rate of an impressive 0.83. This rating makes us one of the safest electrical subcontractors of our size nationally.

The Numbers

- 140 million in annual sales
- 500 employees
- Average 1,000,000 man hours per year
- 100 million bonding capacity per project; 200 million aggregate
- Fleet of over 100 vehicles
- Member of Local 103 IBEW since 1973

History

- Founded in 1966 by John McLaughlin and Bill Sullivan
- SullyMac has serviced the electrical, telecommunications needs of the Boston areas for nearly half a century.
- This once small partnership has become of Boston's most visible and respected electrical contractors.

Community Service

- The McLaughlin family established the Ballybreen-Drumaville trust in 2000 to enhance educational opportunities for underprivileged ethnic youth in the community
- We provide funding for more than 30 community organizations
- SullyMac's civic support team distributes funds to various local charities and events
- Sullivan & McLaughlin also provides support for three orphanages in Haiti.